

Discover resources for your patient journey

PATIENT ADVOCACY RESOURCES

Get access to resources developed by advocacy partner organizations and find specific resources by cancer type. This Is Living With Cancer™ is a proud partner with dozens of organizations.

Pfizer Oncology partners include:

ZERO—THE END OF PROSTATE CANCER
ZeroCancer.org

LUNGEVITY
Lungevity.org

BREASTCANCER.ORG
Breastcancer.org

THE LEUKEMIA & LYMPHOMA SOCIETY®
LLS.org

Find out more about our advocacy partners on the Advocacy Support page on our website.

ADVOCACY SUPPORT

Advocacy groups offer all kinds of support—from educational resources around cancer and diagnosis to community events. These groups share a common goal: to support those impacted by cancer.

PERSONAL STORIES

Hear the real stories of people living with cancer. Their journeys may be different, but they share strength and resilience and provide inspiration.

UNDERSTANDING CANCER

Cancer can be complex. Learning new information about common cancer terms, the clinical trial process and the role of biomarker testing in cancer treatment can help.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Taking care of yourself while living with cancer is an important part of your treatment plan. Here you can find resources that focus on ways to stay active, the importance of nutrition and improving and maintaining your mental health—all tailored specifically to people living with cancer.

THIS IS LIVING WITH CANCER™

A program for people living with cancer and those who love them

This Is Living With Cancer™ is a free online resource developed by Pfizer Oncology for all people living with cancer.

Download the free LivingWith® app

Support to help you live life beyond your diagnosis

This Is Living With Cancer™ is a free online resource developed by Pfizer Oncology for all people living with cancer, regardless of age, income, race, location, cancer type or stage of disease.

This comprehensive program is available to anyone in the United States whether they're on a Pfizer treatment or not, with a growing focus on those facing challenges accessing care.

We offer articles on healthy living, support resources and inspiration for all people living with cancer and those who love them.

Personalize your support resources

If you or your loved one are looking for specific information, you can create a profile to personalize your site experience.

And even if you didn't sign up yet, you can still access a broad range of content, including disease-specific articles, educational materials, cancer planning information, wellness content and more.

Links to:
www.thisislivingwithcancer.com

Scan this QR code with your phone's camera to sign up and start building your customized website experience.

This Is Living With Cancer™ has brought together a community of people living with cancer and those who love them across Facebook, YouTube and Instagram.

Download LivingWith® for free

LivingWith® is a free app for people living with cancer and those who love them. It helps you get support, stay organized and connect to important resources all in one place. Available in English and Spanish.

Scan this QR code with your phone's camera to download the app for free

Links to:
www.thisislivingwithcancer.com